

Son-of-a-gun parents busted

A Queens couple was busted after taking pictures of their 11-month-old and 5-year-old boys -- with handguns, police said.

Mom Angela Haynes, 24, told cops "that she thought it would be funny to take the photos with the kids and the guns," according to court papers. She then e-mailed them to friends and family. But one recipient tipped off the Administration for Children's Services. Cops charged Haynes and boyfriend Jesse Kendall, 27, of South Jamaica, with endangering the welfare of a child, criminal possession of a weapon and possession of marijuana.
