

Jamaican Athletes to help Haiti

Jamaica's track and field stars, headed by Usain Bolt, Asafa Powell, Shelly-Ann Fraser, Brigitte Foster-Hylton and Melaine Walker, have join forces to help their Haitians neighbours. The Jamaican athletes will play their part by raffling themselves for a dinner date at Acropolis Restaurant and Bar on Monday, February 22.

For a 500-dollar ticket, seven lucky females stand a chance to win a dinner date with Powell, Bolt, Michael Frater, Germaine Mason, Jermaine Gonzales, Darrell Brown and Nesta Carter.

The female athletes to be raffled are Foster-Hylton, Sherone Simpson, Shericka Williams, Walker, Fraser, Kaliese Spencer and Anneisha McLaughlin.

All proceeds will go to the UNICEF Haiti Relief Fund.
