

BUJU

All now me cyaa stop feel the pain
The Gargamel get lock up fi cocaine
The driver him neva stop at all
‘Til him reach way behind the prison wall

The Feds say that them did catch him in action
Negotiating a narcotics transaction
Them use surveillance tape and bug
And catch him a touch and taste the drug

Some say a set up, and him should should know better than that
And that he is the victim of an elaborate plot
Because he has been targeted and vilified by the gays
Who want to sabotage him from in the Boom Bye Bye days

Now one of reggae and dancehall’s brightest stars
Is languishing behind steel bars
And as we nervously await his fate
His music we greatly appreciate

“Love mi browning” did mek we dance and laugh
The masterpiece “‘Til Shiloh” did mad and sell off
“Who say” with Beres did mash up the place
“Psalm 23″ him did sing with grace

Yes the man is truly iconic
But in a twist of fate that is indeed ironic
Him tell driver fi go a Alba Mall
And now an alleged drug deal could cause his downfall
