
Jamaica's South Coast Happenings, October And November 2011

Make Two Seasons Guest House, where the welcome is warm and the runnings cool, your base to enjoy these activities. Rates include breakfast and free Internet access.

1. Koriann South of Treasure Beach was crowned Mini Miss Jamaica in Dec. 2010. She committed to raising funds for projects across St. Elizabeth, Jamaica during her reign. With the help of corporate sponsors and other organizations, and donations raised at events that she has hosted, she has contributed to schools, children's home, and other charities.

As she counts down to the end of her reign, Koriann presents Gospel by the Sea, at her father's property in Treasure Beach, Sunset Resort and Villas, on Saturday October 15, 2011 at 7 pm. Special guest artistes are Judith Gayle and D. J. Nicholas in addition to many others. All proceeds go to the Sandy Bank Primary and Basic School and the Pedro Plains Primary School. Two Seasons Guest House is one of the show's sponsors.

2. South Coast Hook and Line Fishing Tournament happens at Calabash Bay, Treasure Beach, October 15-17, 2011. The competition ends at 2 p.m. with the prize giving at 5 p.m.

3. The St. Elizabeth Home Coming Foundation hosts a week of celebration, Sunday, November 20 – to Sunday, November 27, 2011 with pre-Homecoming Week activities November 8 – 18. The St. Elizabeth Home Coming activities will showcase the best of the parish's culture and sports; highlighting the outstanding achievements of the parish's sons and daughters local and internationally.
