

What Does Rihanna, Nicki Minaj & Usain Bolt Have In Common With Invest Caribbean Now 2013?

The Caribbean's region's diverse investment options go way beyond its talents like Barbados-born Rihanna, Jamaica's Usain Bolt and Trinidad & Tobago's Nicki Minaj.

Those options will be up for discussion when Premier of the Turks & Caicos Islands as well as over a dozen other Caribbean ministers of governments gather for the international investment forum, AvalonInvest Caribbean Now 2013, (ICN 2013), on June 5th at the Radisson Martinique in New York City.

"Contrary to popular opinion, the Caribbean region is not just a vacation destination but a region that is rich in its diversity of investment opportunities and talent, like we have seen in Rihanna, Usain and Nicki among others," commented Invest Caribbean Now organizers. "U.S. and Latin American investors in alternative markets would be well advised to look at this last emerging market on earth that is attractive to Chinese and Russian investors as well and make it a date to attend Invest Caribbean Now."

Invest Caribbean Now is presented annually by The Caribbean Tourism Organization; digital media solutions company, Hard Beat Communications and One Caribbean Television, during Caribbean Week in New York, which falls during Caribbean American Heritage Month in the United States.

Limited partnership opportunities are still available by contacting Joe Bernstein at JOE@INVESTCARIBBEANNOW.COM or logging on to ICN's brand new website at Investcaribbeannow.com.
